General Comment

Re the United States Patent and Trademark Office's proposed rule as per docket PTO-P-2019-0024, as a patent holder myself I say: Bring on the challenges! My innovations speak for themselves.

Lately I have been thinking about new patent opportunities. And after President Trump's recent rally in Tulsa, I realized that we really need to redesign ramps. No president should ever have to haltingly tiptoe down a ramp like a flabby 70-year-old.

"I have to tell you, that runway is like an ice-skating rink. And the first step I said, you know this sucker is slippery. I think it was put in by the Democrats. I don't know, whoever the hell got that thing." - President Trump, May 8 2019

"And this was a steel ramp. You all saw it, 'cause everybody saw it. This was a steel ramp. It had no handrail. It was like an ice skating rink!" - President Trump, June 20 2020
